SKI SLOPE TRENKER – DOBBIACO

Tuesday 01st March 2022 – (NJC) National Junior Championship

Ski-icon and jet-setter Prinz Hubertus von Hohenlohe (born in 1959) is an alpine skier, photographer, singer and sport director who participated to 7 Winter Olympic Games and to 20 World Championships (collecting 5 Top World Cup placements). The active 63-year-old organizes for the FEMESKI (Federación Mexicana de Ski) the 5th Mexican Championships in Dobbiaco in the ski region 3 Zinnen Dolomites. This year one race will take place also in Tesido on the ski slope "Guggenberg" (ski region Kronplatz). About 150 athletes from more than 17 nations will join these races.

Special highlight on Tuesday, 01.03.2022 in the arrival area of the Trenker slope in Dobbiaco (about 12:00 p.m.):

Prize giving ceremony with the presence of V.I.P. guests: FRANZ KLAMMER, FRITZ STROBL, TINA MAZE, ALEX VINATZER. There will be a small musical performance by Hubertus von Hohenlohe. As „Gypsyprince“, he will present the new song: “Yo no sé cantar flamenco”. For more information about his song: www.gypsyprince.info / @gypsyprinceofficial / #yonosecantarflamenco. The event will take place in compliance with public safety measures and with a strict observance of FIS-rules in order to prevent the spread of Covid-19 (Green pass and obligatory mask). Invited public only! More info on the website: www.ski-rienza.it/MEX
